

INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

Oil Spills in Arctic Areas

Hosted by Finnish Environment Institute (SYKE)

7-8 MARCH, 2018
Scandic Hotel/Kinopalatsi
Oulu, Finland

Wednesday 7th March

Opening session	Arctic Council's priorities in oil spill response in the Arctic (Arctic council, EPPR, MOSPA agreement)
Session I	Search and Rescue in the Arctic areas
Session II	Ecological consequences of oil spills in the arctic

Thursday 8th March

Session III	Technology for oil in ice response (Mechanical, In situ burning, Dispersants)
Session IV	Ice management and weather services in the Arctic (Ice monitoring, Ice breaking, Weather forecasts)
Session V	Latest research related to oil spills in cold climate (Grace, App4Sea, Stormwinds)
Final session	Closing of the seminar (Closing remarks, main conclusions, way forward)

Speakers are called to submit abstracts to mospa2018@ymparisto.fi by 1st September 2017.

Registration will be opened later, pls see www.syke.fi/projects/mospa2018.

Participation is free of charge.

EKOMON-seminar on Ecological Consequences of Chemical Spills will be held simultaneously. Schedule and information available at www.syke.fi/projects/ekomon.

The international MOSPA oil spill response exercise held in the Bothnian Bay will be broadcasted live at the seminar!

S Y K E

ULKOASIAINMINISTERIÖ
UTRIKESMINISTERIET

Ympäristöministeriö
Miljöministeriet
Ministry of the Environment

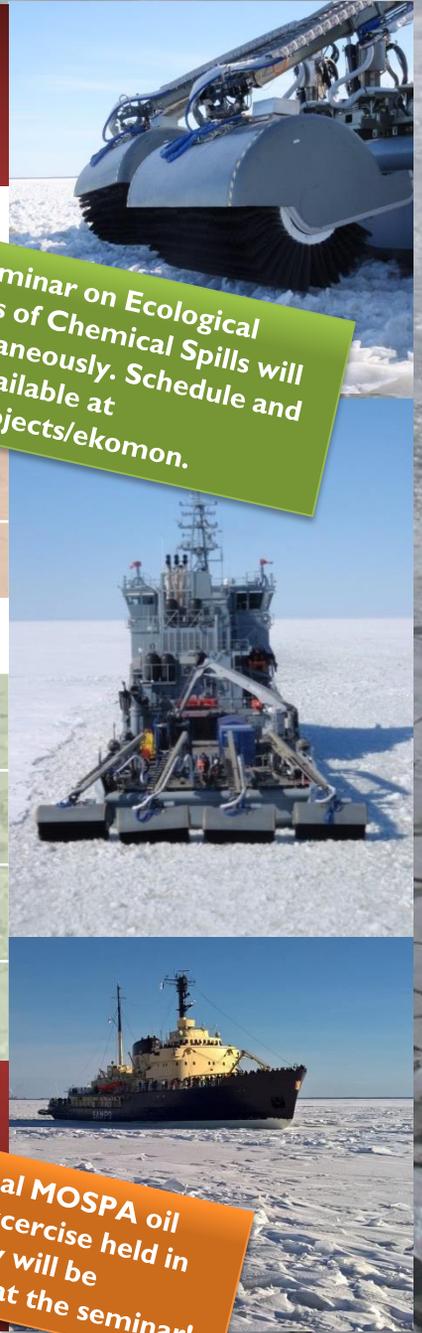

Photo copyright: SYKE